

Claude Smadja

Former Managing Director of the World Economic Forum

Claude Smadja is the President of his own strategic advisory firm which he founded in 2001. From January 1996 to June 2001, he was the Managing Director of the World Economic Forum, with overall responsibility for the Davos annual meeting, and the Forum's activities in Asia. He sits on the boards of a number of major corporations, as well as serving as a member of the International Board of Overseers of the Illinois Institute of Technology.

“Claude has that rare ability to combine an integrated conceptual approach with a very hands-on attitude.”

In detail

A graduate of the University of Lausanne, Switzerland, Claude Smadja started his career as a journalist, first in the print media and then in television, covering an extensive range of international economic and political issues and conducting interviews with top political leaders worldwide. Claude Smadja joined the World Economic Forum in 1987 as a Director and Member of the Executive Board.

What he offers you

Claude works with global corporations and government entities on strategic issues and creates "content platforms" – high-profile international conferences, seminars, workshops, briefings and analyses – helping clients to navigate and leverage globalization.

How he presents

An engaging speaker with an in-depth knowledge of the world's economic, business, and political scene and its key players, Claude Smadja is frequently invited to speak at international conferences and private business meetings.

Languages

He presents in English and French

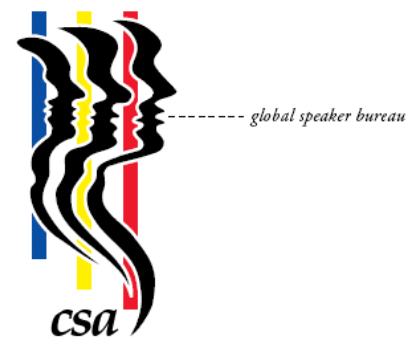

Want to know more?

Give us a call or send us an e-mail to find out exactly what he could bring to your event.

How to book him?

Simply phone, fax or e-mail us. See below for details.

CSA Celebrity Speakers
Phone +359 888 308180
E-mail speakers@speakersbulgaria.com
Website www.speakersbulgaria.com

Topics

Globalisation

Macro Economics

The IT Revolution

Eastern Asia Economies

The Role of NGOs in World Economics

Business Management in a Hostile Environment