

Richard Olivier

Founding Director of Mythodrama

Richard Olivier is the founding voice within Mythodrama. His work today is at the leading edge of bringing the world of theatre and the arts into the development of authentic leaders. Richard has been a leading theatre director for over ten years, and directed Henry V for the opening of Shakespeare's Globe Theatre in London in 1997. He has worked extensively in the fields of Organisational and Personal Development.

The leaders of tomorrow will need to be ordinary human beings with extraordinary talents

In detail

Currently Richard is an Associate Fellow of Templeton College, Oxford, and a master of Mythodrama at Shakespeare's Globe Theatre in London. He also works internationally as an independent consultant, conference speaker and workshop leader. He has been a guest speaker at numerous events around the world including the World Economic Forum in Davos.

What he offers you

Richard uses Shakespeare's Henry V as a rich source of inspiration for his presentations. A near perfect story of successful leadership – it's not just the famous speeches that offer lessons for the modern manager, but also the intricate subtleties of incidents throughout the play. From the first line to the last scene the plot reflects invaluable insights into leadership.

How he presents

Tailoring each event to the client's needs, Richard's highly entertaining and unique presentations make him one of the most sought after motivational speakers available.
