Human Resource Development Specialist and Mountaineer

Lene Gammelgaard is a psychotherapist and a lawyer.

She was the first Scandinavian woman to climb Everest, a success overshadowed by eight team members' deaths, yet her story of survival and accomplishment is riveting.

Cofounder of several drug treatment centres; she also founded a consulting business, focusing on human resource development.

*'We must adjust to life as life will not adjust to us.'
Lene Gammelgaard*

In detail

A writer and therapist, she uses the outdoors as a learning environment for her human resource development studies.

Based in Denmark, she also pursues her HR studies as a PhD researcher for the University of Edinburgh.

What she offers you

A truth seeking person, she reveals how to improve your success rate by looking at the interrelationship between success and failure.

Although driven by discovery in a much explored world she shows you the benefits of any discovery being new to you.

How she presents

With a balance of passion and realism she animates her adventures and subsequent studies.

Languages

She presents in English, Danish and German.
